

THIS WEEK

Saugeen Shores Skating Club

February 1, 2016

Monday's Partnering Schedule - No regular lessons with Curtis this week as there is Low Test during Monday's Ice Time.

Monday is Low Test - Open warmup 5:15 to 5:30. Skaters are required to be dressed and ready to skate at least 45 mins prior to their test time as scheduled.

Battle of the Blades - If anyone wants to volunteer for the event please e-mail ssbotb@gmail.com

There will be a licensed After Party at the Plex starting right after the show at 9pm hosted by Lakeshore Recreation

This is a great opportunity to raise money for the club and feature the club in our local community.

Raffle Tickets - Must be handed in Thursday. We still have more to sell if anyone is able to sell a few more books please contact ssskatingclub@gmail.com

Strut Your Stuff - Sign up sheet for Juniors and Seniors who want to skate in the year end show will be posted on the bulletin board. Each skater is given an opportunity to skate once and also be in the group number.

This can be a solo, showcase, solo dance, pair.

There will also be one Senior Group and one Junior Group number with all of the skaters as well. Practices will begin soon!

Spring Skate - SSSC will be hosting a Spring Session for our skaters! This will be open to Stage 4 Canskaters, Pre-star, Junior and Senior skaters. Includes a test day!

More information to come!

Thornhill Fun Competition April 15-17 - The Announcement is out for the Thornhill Fun Competition. This is set up just like Ice Dreams competition with categories for Canskate, Junior and Senior Starskate skaters.

Talk to your coach! Register online by visiting Skate Canada Central Ontario web page www.skatecanada-centralontario.com/ and select Events/Results to find the competition announcement.

You'll want to sign up for Spring Skate to get your practice in! :)
